

Waiver Policy

IJOT grants waivers to some authors who are unable to afford manuscript handling fee. Authors who wish to apply for waivers must demonstrate their inability to afford the manuscript handling fee.

Upon application, corresponding authors from Low Income Countries may be granted up to 75% waiver.

Upon application, corresponding authors from Lower Middle Income Countries may be granted up to 40% waiver.

Corresponding authors requesting for these waivers must strongly demonstrate why their waiver applications should be granted. Authors who are eligible for waivers should apply immediately after the submission of their manuscripts.

IJOT reserve the right to approve or reject a waiver application.
